Hi Matt,

I was told you're in meetings off and on all day today, so if you're unable to return my call from this morning could you please reply by email?

I asked about the liquor commission followup to the Red Lion March 5 incident. Scott Cochrane told me he met with the city last Thursday, the footage was reviewed, and, he said, the woman who struck the bouncer has apologized. Joe Lamberson said police didn't charge anyone.

My question is: What was the outcome of the meeting with Scott Cochrane?

Is there any action pending before the liquor commission related to that bar and incident?

Any information you can provide would be helpful. We continue to hear from people that they think this woman died (though police assured us she did not, so I'm attempting to put whatever false rumors there are out there to rest.

Thanks,

Deb Pressey

Ben,

We received a FOIA request for the UIPD assist other reports from the Red Lion which involves your case C22-6923. Obviously they would have to FOIA your stuff separately, but wanted to know if there is any ongoing investigation. From what I understand there is not and we need to release our reports.

The FOIA also requested another case involving UIPD assist other reports at the Red Lion on March 4th. C22-6883 CPD issued an NTA for a fight.

Let me know if anything is ongoing.

Hi Joe,

Does CPD have a report on an incident over the weekend in which a woman was said to have been slammed into a brick wall by employee and later died, but not in this county?

If so, can you please give me some information about that on the phone?

Thanks,

Matt-

I misspoke on Friday when you asked about the other social media video. I asked Kohle about it, and he said it was from an incident in September. The report below is from that date; there should also be a CPD report because our staff called them—twice.

At approximately 1:20 am a male individual continually trying to enter the bar to find his friends. This was after we had shut the doors and therefore we were not letting him do so. He then continued to refuse to stay out of the exit. I attempted to reason with him and explain to him that he could wait but just wait out of the way. Instead he began to verbally insult me and tell me I smelled like shit. I told him that's fine but just wait out of the way. As this continued he kept trying to walk into the bar. I kept stopping him from entering. At this point he began to become verbally hostile and threatening. Stating he would beat my ass etc. I again pushed him back and he then tried swinging at me with his left hand. He then spit in my face and I immediately grabbed him and took him to the ground where I detained him until police arrived. We banned him and let him go without charges. He later returned around bar close with a group of his buddies about 8 to try to fight me as well as other staff. The police were called for that as well.

[EXTERNAL]

[REDACTED] is a student at UIUC and shared with me the video of the girl who was seriously injured outside the Red Lion over the weekend. Although I know there are many rumors about what happened and the girl was clearly “over served”, it appears that the staff of the bar handled this very badly. She looks to weigh about 110 pounds. I don’t care what she did or how drunk she was, there is no excuse for a bouncer handling her aggressively enough that her head was slammed against a brick wall. My understanding is that this bouncer and his security company are known for for inappropriate reactions but have never been held accountable. This one is downright criminal and I sincerely hope the city is not going to sweep this under the rug but will hold the responsible parties accountable. I also have concerns about the training of the police officers involved. The way she is handled when they flip her over to check her pulse is extremely concerning. What if she had a neck injury?

It is shocking to me that there has not been significant news coverage about this incident and the whole thing is making the city look very, very bad.

Sincerely,
Lisa Kitzman

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

Mayor Feinen just called me about this. She is requesting that we expedite the process ASAP as she is getting inquiries about it. I told her that we had discussed it at CSAW and are working on it and are hoping to have the MIR scheduled for Friday. She was also wondering if we have any updates about the status of the young woman, as she is hearing the same rumors that the woman passed away. Chief Petrilli and DC Olmstead I am copying you both as you were on CSAW on Monday and we talked about getting updates, if you have heard anything new about her condition or about the investigation.

Lt. Davis, I know things are hectic and you are very swamped, so please let me know if there is someone I can reach out to at CPD or UIPD to get the videos so we can schedule the MIR as soon as possible. If you (or someone) can please send them to Legal directly, that would be great, or we could go pick them up somewhere as well.

Call me if you need. THANK YOU!

Kathryn

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

The female was treated and released that same date. We do have Red Lion's video and it has been reviewed. The UIPD video from the intersection does not show anything of substance due to the distance.

I will have to defer to Lieutenant Davis for further information at this time.

Good morning,

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

Andre - do you know when you will be able to get the camera footage to Matt and Kathryn? That is the last piece of info I'm waiting on to be able to schedule the MIR meeting and I'm out tomorrow and Friday. My hope is to get this scheduled before I leave today.

Thanks,

Joe, got your voice message.

So, from the police department's standpoint, just to clarify:

Investigation is concluded; nobody charged with an offense; case referred to liquor commission, as is customary for incidents at bars. Correct?

Matt,

I'm out of the office today. I do plan on attending the zoom meeting this afternoon. The disk I provided Darian yesterday worked on my desktop prior to turning it over to her. The instructions DC Olmstead provided will run the video from that disk. IT will probably be able to provide the answer as to why the video is not playing. I don't think CPD can provide any other options at this point.

Dear Alyssa,

Thank you for reaching out to the Student Assistance Center. I recommend you contacting Champaign Police Department for any questions about what you reported. If you want to discuss safety planning I have reached out to refer you to UIPD Detective Tara Hurles via hurless@illinois.edu. I have also included a link to campus resources and we are willing to meet with you to discuss any resource that may be helpful to you.

Subject: Safety At Campus Bars

Hi, I am sure you are aware of the recent incidences with several bouncers at The Red Lion. I am wondering if there will be any intervention from the school to ensure the safety of students. I was informed that the bouncer that slammed a girl's head into a wall and potentially made her braindead is still working at The Red Lion. Another bouncer was just charged with sexual assault. I know that the bars are technically not under the authority of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, but will there be an investigation to ensure the safety of students? If not, who can I contact to ensure that I can feel safe because I live across the street from The Red Lion.

Best regards,

Alyssa Heavrin

Chris,

I am writing to recap our meetings on Thursday and Friday of last week concerning the major incident that occurred at Red Lion in the early morning of 3/5.

At our meeting on Thursday afternoon 3/10, you, Scott Cochrane, and Kohle Anderson were present on behalf of Red Lion, and Kathryn Cataldo, Lt. Andre Davis, and I were present for the City. We discussed the incident at length, and Lt. Davis, who had reviewed and analyzed the available footage, described what he observed and his analysis of what occurred.

Due to technical difficulties, we were unable to jointly review the security camera footage from Red Lion, which captured the incident, so you, Lt. Davis, Kathryn, and I met again on Friday 3/11 to do so. In addition to reviewing the footage from 3/5, we also watched a clip shared anonymously from a social media account of a bar security use of force situation that occurred outside Red Lion sometime last fall that raised concerns on the City's part.

Following a close review of all the footage, we discussed potential mitigation steps Red Lion might take, and we agreed that the appropriate measure is for Red Lion to provide training for its bar security staff, particularly related to physical engagement with patrons and use of force.

Due to staffing issues at the Champaign Police Department, the PD has been unable to offer the bar security training it has periodically provided in the past, called BEST. We agreed on Friday that both the City and Red Lion would seek to identify alternative training solutions and that Red Lion would bring any proposed training course to the Liquor Commissioner's Office for approval before proceeding.

Our office will follow up with a more formalized document describing the agreed mitigation step within the next few days.

In the meantime, please let me know if questions arise or if you identify a training course you would like the City to consider.

Thank you.

Ben,

We received a FOIA request for the UIPD assist other reports from the Red Lion which involves your case C22-6923. Obviously they would have to FOIA your stuff separately, but wanted to know if there is any ongoing investigation. From what I understand there is not and we need to release our reports.

The FOIA also requested another case involving UIPD assist other reports at the Red Lion on March 4th. C22-6883 CPD issued an NTA for a fight.

Let me know if anything is ongoing.

Officers were called to the 200 block of East Green Street for a report of an altercation between an intoxicated individual and a security staff member working for The Red Lion. According to on-scene reports, a female patron was escorted out of the bar for being in an unauthorized area. Once outside, the patron is alleged to have struck a security staff member in the head. The staff member took her to the ground, and she hit her head on the way down. Officers confirmed that the staff member had injuries consistent with being punched. The female patron suffered a cut to the right side of her head. She was transported to a local hospital and was intoxicated but talking with staff.

I will follow up on the Red Lion incident. I did not see anything noted in our shift summaries for Friday or Saturday night regarding this incident. UIPD may have responded since they are running the campus details over the weekend. If video has not been pulled then I will have an elec-tech pull it asap.

Thank you all. I tried to find video online but it looks like it was taken down. The posts indicate CPD was on scene so they should be able to let us know what happened.

Good morning,

Quick update: I emailed Lt. Robbins first thing this morning and requested a copy of the police report and will share that with the group as soon as I receive it.

In regards to the MIR scheduling - do you want me to reach out to Scott (or Chris) now or should I wait until we get more info from UIPD/CPD?

Everything there looks accurate. Scott had a slight quibble about the interpretation of the video: Lt. Davis mentioned a couple of times on Thursday that the girl hit her head on the wall, and then the sidewalk, but we didn't see any contact with the wall. He may have just misspoke on Thursday because we didn't have the video in front of us at the time. I don't think the wall was mentioned on Friday, but I told Scott that I would pass that quibble along to you.

Subject: Major Incident Review - Red Lion - 3/5/22 Incident

Chris,

I am writing to recap our meetings on Thursday and Friday of last week concerning the major incident that occurred at Red Lion in the early morning of 3/5.

At our meeting on Thursday afternoon 3/10, you, Scott Cochrane, and Kohle Anderson were present on behalf of Red Lion, and Kathryn Cataldo, Lt. Andre Davis, and I were present for the City. We discussed the incident at length, and Lt. Davis, who had reviewed and analyzed the available footage, described what he observed and his analysis of what occurred.

Due to technical difficulties, we were unable to jointly review the security camera footage from Red Lion, which captured the incident, so you, Lt. Davis, Kathryn, and I met again on Friday 3/11 to do so. In addition to reviewing the footage from 3/5, we also watched a clip shared anonymously from a social media account of a bar security use of force situation that occurred outside Red Lion sometime last fall that raised concerns on the City's part.

Following a close review of all the footage, we discussed potential mitigation steps Red Lion might take, and we agreed that the appropriate measure is for Red Lion to provide training for its bar security staff, particularly related to physical engagement with patrons and use of force.

Due to staffing issues at the Champaign Police Department, the PD has been unable to offer the bar security training it has periodically provided in the past, called BEST. We agreed on Friday that both the City and Red Lion would seek to identify alternative training solutions and that Red Lion would bring any proposed training course to the Liquor Commissioner's Office for approval before proceeding.

Our office will follow up with a more formalized document describing the agreed mitigation step within the next few days.

In the meantime, please let me know if questions arise or if you identify a training course you would like the City to consider.

Thank you.

Subject: Major Incident Review - Red Lion - 3/5/22 Incident

Chris,

I am writing to recap our meetings on Thursday and Friday of last week concerning the major incident that occurred at Red Lion in the early morning of 3/5.

At our meeting on Thursday afternoon 3/10, you, Scott Cochrane, and Kohle Anderson were present on behalf of Red Lion, and Kathryn Cataldo, Lt. Andre Davis, and I were present for the City. We discussed the incident at length, and Lt. Davis, who had reviewed and analyzed the available footage, described what he observed and his analysis of what occurred.

Due to technical difficulties, we were unable to jointly review the security camera footage from Red Lion, which captured the incident, so you, Lt. Davis, Kathryn, and I met again on Friday 3/11 to do so. In addition to reviewing the footage from 3/5, we also watched a clip shared anonymously from a social media account of a bar security use of force situation that occurred outside Red Lion sometime last fall that raised concerns on the City's part.

Following a close review of all the footage, we discussed potential mitigation steps Red Lion might take, and we agreed that the appropriate measure is for Red Lion to provide training for its bar security staff, particularly related to physical engagement with patrons and use of force.

Due to staffing issues at the Champaign Police Department, the PD has been unable to offer the bar security training it has periodically provided in the past, called BEST. We agreed on Friday that both the City and Red Lion would seek to identify alternative training solutions and that Red Lion would bring any proposed training course to the Liquor Commissioner's Office for approval before proceeding.

Our office will follow up with a more formalized document describing the agreed mitigation step within the next few days.

In the meantime, please let me know if questions arise or if you identify a training course you would like the City to consider.

Thank you.

MR

I think so, yes. I believe Joe has usually scheduled these major incident review meetings in the past so she may need to reach out to Suki and Darian for contact information, calendar logistics, etc. to get it put together.

I would also like to have the meeting after we've had a chance to look at all relevant video if that would be possible.

Thanks,
Kathryn

I think so, yes. I believe Joe has usually scheduled these major incident review meetings in the past so she may need to reach out to Suki and Darian for contact information, calendar logistics, etc. to get it put together.

I would also like to have the meeting after we've had a chance to look at all relevant video if that would be possible.

Thanks,

Is there any way you could send me a copy of that so I can share it with the Liquor Commissioner's Office?

Other than this mess, hopefully Unofficial weekend was kind to you!!

Lisa,

Thank you for your message. I wanted to take a moment to let you know that the incident is under investigation by the Champaign Police Department and will also be reviewed with the establishment by the City's liquor licensing and administration team to determine appropriate steps the establishment must take moving forward. Liquor establishments are required to adopt and follow strict policies concerning the use of force by staff members and there can be licensing consequences for failing to follow those policies.

I cannot speak in specifics about the ongoing review and response, but I can agree that the footage of the incident I have observed is very concerning and the City takes this response very seriously. I can also state that, as I understand it, the initial law enforcement response to the incident was from the University of Illinois Police Department, with a later assist from the Champaign Police Department. I will pass along your concerns to the City's police administration, but I would also encourage you to reach out to UIPD as well to relay your concerns about the safety of the initial response.

Thank you,

Matt Roeschley
Deputy City Manager/Deputy Liquor Commissioner

[EXTERNAL]

██████ is a student at UIUC and shared with me the video of the girl who was seriously injured outside the Red Lion over the weekend. Although I know there are many rumors about what happened and the girl was clearly “over served”, it appears that the staff of the bar handled this very badly. She looks to weigh about 110 pounds. I don’t care what she did or how drunk she was, there is no excuse for a bouncer handling her aggressively enough that her head was slammed against a brick wall. My understanding is that this bouncer and his security company are known for inappropriate reactions but have never been held accountable. This one is downright criminal and I sincerely hope the city is not going to sweep this under the rug but will hold the responsible parties accountable. I also have concerns about the training of the police officers involved. The way she is handled when they flip her over to check her pulse is extremely concerning. What if she had a neck injury?

It is shocking to me that there has not been significant news coverage about this incident and the whole thing is making the city look very, very bad.

Sincerely,
Lisa Kitzman

Joe,

Is there any more information about the Red Lion incident early Saturday morning? The people who believe everything they read on social media are accusing us in email after email of covering up a death, covering up a serious injury, covering up for police covering up, you name it.

I have responded only with the information we released is based on what police have released. But just to be sure we're not overlooking something....

All,

I recovered the original files from evidence and have shared them with you all via OneDrive. Download the folder to your computer and then transfer them to your desktop. Open the "player" folder (not the Zip folder) and then open the "Player_ml folder." Open the "Player" application within that folder and the default player should open. The easiest way to open the videos is to back out of that folder twice to get to the original contents folder. There are three MP4 videos there. You can drag the files to the player and play them.

I did test the player and all videos and it worked fine.

If we are unable to play the video on our end, I see two alternatives: 1) I will reach out to Chris Copeland and ask that he have the video on their system cued up to review; 2) Andre should verbally walk us through what the video shows, since he has reviewed it.

The folder with the player appears to be possibly corrupted? I downloaded all the contents and should have been unable to unzip the folder containing the player; however, windows is advising there is a permissions error. I checked some of the settings and still am unable to get it to work. The folder clearly contains data but is not cooperating.

Andre, what did you do with the original copy?

After speaking with Kevin,

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

Mayor Feinen just called me about this. She is requesting that we expedite the process ASAP as she is getting inquiries about it. I told her that we had discussed it at CSAW and are working on it and are hoping to have the MIR scheduled for Friday. She was also wondering if we have any updates about the status of the young woman, as she is hearing the same rumors that the woman passed away. Chief Petrilli and DC Olmstead I am copying you both as you were on CSAW on Monday and we talked about getting updates, if you have heard anything new about her condition or about the investigation.

Lt. Davis, I know things are hectic and you are very swamped, so please let me know if there is someone I can reach out to at CPD or UIPD to get the videos so we can schedule the MIR as soon as possible. If you (or someone) can please send them to Legal directly, that would be great, or we could go pick them up somewhere as well.

Call me if you need. THANK YOU!

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

All,

I recovered the original files from evidence and have shared them with you all via OneDrive. Download the folder to your computer and then transfer them to your desktop. Open the "player" folder (not the Zip folder) and then open the "Player_ml folder." Open the "Player" application within that folder and the default player should open. The easiest way to open the videos is to back out of that folder twice to get to the original contents folder. There are three MP4 videos there. You can drag the files to the player and play them.

I did test the player and all videos and it worked fine.

OK. I want to keep the meeting on for today because it sounds as if Red Lion's necessary parties won't be available next week, and this is pressing IMO.

If we are unable to play the video on our end, I see two alternatives: 1) I will reach out to Chris Copeland and ask that he have the video on their system cued up to review; 2) Andre should verbally walk us through what the video shows, since he has reviewed it.

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

All,

I recovered the original files from evidence and have shared them with you all via OneDrive. Download the folder to your computer and then transfer them to your desktop. Open the "player" folder (not the Zip folder) and then open the "Player_ml folder." Open the "Player" application within that folder and the default player should open. The easiest way to open the videos is to back out of that folder twice to get to the original contents folder. There are three MP4 videos there. You can drag the files to the player and play them.

I did test the player and all videos and it worked fine.

OK. I want to keep the meeting on for today because it sounds as if Red Lion's necessary parties won't be available next week, and this is pressing IMO.

If we are unable to play the video on our end, I see two alternatives: 1) I will reach out to Chris Copeland and ask that he have the video on their system cued up to review; 2) Andre should verbally walk us through what the video shows, since he has reviewed it.

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Lt,

I am not in tonight but I forwarded your request to Warren and he will ensure Holloway takes care of it.

I would like to note, the female patron was not slammed on the ground by security. Holloway and I both reviewed the video that night to make sure. I just don't want that narrative to continue, as the female patron punched the security officer in the face causing the whole event to unfold.

Thank you,

Tonight I will need you to contact Carle Hospital and follow up on the status of the female patron that was slammed to the ground by Red Lion security. This thing grew legs over the weekend and both social Media and media outlets behave been on top of it. Rumor has it that she died. I don't believe this to be the case but we won't know unless we confirm. Secondly, please have Holloway download his BWC footage from that night. Thank you.

Sergeant,

Tonight I will need you to contact Carle Hospital and follow up on the status of the female patron that was slammed to the ground by Red Lion security. This thing grew legs over the weekend and both social Media and media outlets behave been on top of it. Rumor has it that she died. I don't believe this to be the case but we won't know unless we confirm. Secondly, please have Holloway download his BWC footage from that night. Thank you.

I've asked Shannon Miner to see if she can open the videos - she works with video for OV purposes. The original files from OneDrive were corrupted and she couldn't open them, but she has a call in to Matt Iverson to see if he can send her the files directly. I am waiting to hear back from her on that, but I am not counting on that being a solution at the moment.

If we are unable to play the video on our end, I see two alternatives: 1) I will reach out to Chris Copeland and ask that he have the video on their system cued up to review; 2) Andre should verbally walk us through what the video shows, since he has reviewed it.

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

I've asked Shannon Miner to see if she can open the videos - she works with video for OV purposes. The original files from OneDrive were corrupted and she couldn't open them, but she has a call in to Matt Iverson to see if he can send her the files directly. I am waiting to hear back from her on that, but I am not counting on that being a solution at the moment.

OK. I want to keep the meeting on for today because it sounds as if Red Lion's necessary parties won't be available next week, and this is pressing IMO.

If we are unable to play the video on our end, I see two alternatives: 1) I will reach out to Chris Copeland and ask that he have the video on their system cued up to review; 2) Andre should verbally walk us through what the video shows, since he has reviewed it.

The folder with the player appears to be possibly corrupted? I downloaded all the contents and should have been unable to unzip the folder containing the player; however, windows is advising there is a permissions error. I checked some of the settings and still am unable to get it to work. The folder clearly contains data but is not cooperating.

After speaking with Kevin,

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

Sergeant,

Tonight I will need you to contact Carle Hospital and follow up on the status of the female patron that was slammed to the ground by Red Lion security. This thing grew legs over the weekend and both social Media and media outlets behave been on top of it. Rumor has it that she died. I don't believe this to be the case but we won't know unless we confirm. Secondly, please have Holloway download his BWC footage from that night. Thank you.

OK. I want to keep the meeting on for today because it sounds as if Red Lion's necessary parties won't be available next week, and this is pressing IMO.

If we are unable to play the video on our end, I see two alternatives: 1) I will reach out to Chris Copeland and ask that he have the video on their system cued up to review; 2) Andre should verbally walk us through what the video shows, since he has reviewed it.

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

I was able to get the video to play from my desk top remotely is the good news. The bad news is the camera on my work laptop does not work and when I zoom it will be from my cell phone. Darian, are you able to play the disk from your desk top and play it during the meeting?

I downloaded all the contents and should have been unable to unzip the folder containing the player; however, windows is advising there is a permissions error. I checked some of the settings and still am unable to get it to work. The folder clearly contains data but is not cooperating.

After speaking with Kevin,

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

The USB is currently in evidence. The disk the footage was copied onto is with Darian. I am working remotely this afternoon and can try to play the video from my desk top but can't make any promises.

The folder with the player appears to be possibly corrupted? I downloaded all the contents and should have been unable to unzip the folder containing the player; however, windows is advising there is a permissions error. I checked some of the settings and still am unable to get it to work. The folder clearly contains data but is not cooperating.

Andre, what did you do with the original copy?

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

Good morning,

I have the disc here at the front desk with footage. The files are too large for me to email.

I can upload them to the Liquor Teams page for everyone to access, unless that presents security concerns.

Matt, can you please let me know how you'd like me to handle getting these files to you and Kathryn?

Thanks!

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

After speaking with Kevin,

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

Good morning,

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

Andre - do you know when you will be able to get the camera footage to Matt and Kathryn?

That is the last piece of info I'm waiting on to be able to schedule the MIR meeting and I'm out tomorrow and Friday. My hope is to get this scheduled before I leave today.

Thanks,

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

The folder with the player appears to be possibly corrupted? I downloaded all the contents and should have been unable to unzip the folder containing the player; however, windows is advising there is a permissions error. I checked some of the settings and still am unable to get it to work. The folder clearly contains data but is not cooperating.

Andre, what did you do with the original copy?

After speaking with Kevin,

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

I am curious if others have had the same experience.

Andre, worst case scenario, we will need you to screen share during the meeting and play the video from your computer.

Longer term, we will need to determine what the fix is to make sure we can share security footage like this more easily. Maybe we need to involve the elec techs/ IT?

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

The folder with the player appears to be possibly corrupted? I downloaded all the contents and should have been unable to unzip the folder containing the player; however, windows is advising there is a permissions error. I checked some of the settings and still am unable to get it to work. The folder clearly contains data but is not cooperating.

Andre, what did you do with the original copy?

I went back to the CD and copied the entire folder to my desktop and uploaded it to the Teams folder. I did not realize everything inside would be needed. The folder contains the player.zip file you will need to view the videos.

Save the folder to your desktop. You will open the player and then drag and drop the videos into it.

Kevin, please let me know if I've missed anything.

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

Yes, it is a proprietary video file, so you must use the player that should have been copied to the disk. I just checked the link and it does not look like the player was uploaded to that folder. Darian, did you download all the file .

Good morning,

I've placed the Files in Liquor Teams, but I'm including a link to Sharepoint that everyone can access.

When dropping off the footage, Andre suggested the following to watch the clips if you have issues.

1. Save to your desktop
2. Open your media player
3. Drag the video into the player to watch

 Red Lion

Kathryn, if you're still having issue with accessing Teams, I know IT can typically solve any issues! It might make any future video sharing easier, if that helps!

Let me know if you are having issues accessing the files.

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

https://www.reddit.com/r/UIUC/comments/pw1dmu/red\_lion\_last\_night\_pt1\_not\_my\_video/?utm\_source=share&utm\_medium=mweb3x

Please do something about this place.

Thank you

Good morning,

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

Andre - do you know when you will be able to get the camera footage to Matt and Kathryn? That is the last piece of info I'm waiting on to be able to schedule the MIR meeting and I'm out tomorrow and Friday. My hope is to get this scheduled before I leave today.

Thanks,
Miranda

I can upload them to the Liquor Teams page for everyone to access, unless that presents security concerns.

Thanks!

The female was treated and released that same date. We do have Red Lion's video and it has been reviewed. The UIPD video from the intersection does not show anything of substance due to the distance.

Good morning,

I have the disc here at the front desk with footage. The files are too large for me to email.

I can upload them to the Liquor Teams page for everyone to access, unless that presents security concerns.

Matt, can you please let me know how you'd like me to handle getting these files to you and Kathryn?

Thanks!

Good morning,

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

Andre - do you know when you will be able to get the camera footage to Matt and Kathryn? That is the last piece of info I'm waiting on to be able to schedule the MIR meeting and I'm out tomorrow and Friday. My hope is to get this scheduled before I leave today.

Thanks,

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

The female was treated and released that same date. We do have Red Lion's video and it has been reviewed. The UIPD video from the intersection does not show anything of substance due to the distance.

I will have to defer to Lieutenant Davis for further information at this time.

Good morning,

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

Andre - do you know when you will be able to get the camera footage to Matt and Kathryn? That is the last piece of info I'm waiting on to be able to schedule the MIR meeting and I'm out tomorrow and Friday. My hope is to get this scheduled before I leave today.

Thanks,

I was wondering if anything was being done with the violent bouncers at red lion? I heard rumors that the dad of the girl who's head was recently split open by a 300lb man was heading down with a car full of people to take care of it. Not sure how true it is but that's what I heard. These bouncers are out of control and suffer no consequences. Here is another video that was shared of the red lion animals.

Good morning,

I remember reading in one of the reports that the incident was witnessed by police officers on patrol, so they were likely on scene before anyone inside even knew it had happened.

Andre - do you know when you will be able to get the camera footage to Matt and Kathryn? That is the last piece of info I'm waiting on to be able to schedule the MIR meeting and I'm out tomorrow and Friday. My hope is to get this scheduled before I leave today.

Thanks,
Miranda

I can do Friday, but I would like to review the videos before the meeting (and possibly review it during the meeting as well) if at all possible so we know what exactly took place.

Hi Officer Voges,

I apologize for the delay in getting you the footage, it took awhile to grab everything from Red Lion and I have a personal matter at home. I have attached the footage below as well as the pictures we have from that night. I'm available to chat whenever is convenient for you and feel free to call me if you need anything else on my end at [REDACTED].

Also in regards to the information you gave me about calling the state attorney's office, do I need the report number or any additional information? I requested the report through FOIA but have not received anything back yet.

This is the link from the footage from the incident. It was a weird video type but I converted it and just added it to google drive so it is easier for you to access. Clearly isn't the best quality but I can break down the understanding of what's happening if need be.

Thank you again for all your help and have a good rest of your day.

Good morning Tyler. I have finally had a opportunity to review the video you sent me of the altercation at Red Lion. Unfortunately based on that video, I do not believe I will be able to add charges on the offender who battered you. The video is very grainy and does not provide me with enough visual evidence to identify the offender who battered your friend. With that being said, it would be of no benefit to him to file a police report at this time. For future reference, please tell him to be sure to notify the police at the time of the incident and allow us to investigate things as they happen. It is much more difficult to generate police reports and identify suspects and/or witnesses after the fact than it is at the time of the incident. If you have any questions regarding this email, let me know and I will try to contact you as soon as possible. Hope you and your friend are doing well and have had no other issues. Have a good day, Officer Voges 785.

Hi Andre and Kevin,

I'm assisting Darian with opening a video file from the Red Lion but the player file seems to be corrupted. Could we have the player sent to us again? The easiest way is to upload it to Onedrive and share the link to us or let me know where the player is located.

Thank you,

Good afternoon Vanessa,

Officers responded to the 200 block of East Green Street on Saturday morning, March 5 at 01:47 hours. According to on-scene reports, a female patron was escorted out of the bar for being in an unauthorized area. Once outside, the patron is alleged to have struck a security staff member in the head. The staff member took her to the ground, and she hit her head on the way down. Officers confirmed that the staff member had injuries consistent with being punched. The female patron suffered a cut to the right side of her head. She was transported to a local hospital and was intoxicated but talking with staff. No citations were issued on-scene in relation to the incident, which remains under investigation.

Thank you,

Joe

LT,

Just making sure that all of this is suitable to share with reporters before I do so.

Here's how I reworked it for media. Can you let me know if it's accurate and acceptable?

Officers were called to the 200 block of East Green Street for a report of an altercation between an intoxicated individual and a security staff member working for The Red Lion. According to on-scene reports, a female patron was escorted out of the bar for being in an unauthorized area. Once outside, the patron is alleged to have struck a security staff member in the head. The staff member took her to the ground, and she hit her head on the way down. Officers confirmed that the staff member had injuries consistent with being punched. The female patron suffered a cut to the right side of her head. She was transported to a local hospital and was intoxicated but talking with staff. No citations were issued on-scene in relation to the incident, which remains under review by the Champaign Police Department and the Office of the Liquor Commissioner.

Thank you for the thorough information on this,

Joe

I have reviewed the reports.

Intoxicated Patron was being escorted out of the bar for being in an unauthorized area of the bar. Once outside she punched the security staff in the face. He took her to the ground and she hit her head twice in the way down. Security had injuries consistent with being punched. She suffered a cut to the right side of her head. She was transported to Carle and was talking but intoxicated at the hospital.

Good afternoon Vanessa,

Officers responded to the 200 block of East Green Street on Saturday morning, March 5 at 01:47 hours. According to on-scene reports, a female patron was escorted out of the bar for being in an unauthorized area. Once outside, the patron is alleged to have struck a security staff member in the head. The staff member took her to the ground, and she hit her head on the way down. Officers confirmed that the staff member had injuries consistent with being punched. The female patron suffered a cut to the right side of her head. She was transported to a local hospital and was intoxicated but talking with staff. No citations were issued on-scene in relation to the incident, which remains under investigation.

Thank you,

Joe

Hi Joe,

We just heard about a girl got knocked out at the Red Lion bar by a bouncer on Saturday night. Can you give me some details on what happened and if there were any arrests made?

Thank you and looking forward to hearing back from you soon.

I'm out of the office today. I do plan on attending the zoom meeting this afternoon. The disk I provided Darian yesterday worked on my desktop prior to turning it over to her. The instructions DC Olmstead provided will run the video from that disk. IT will probably be able to provide the answer as to why the video is not playing. I don't think CPD can provide any other options at this point.

CHAMPAIGN POLICE

Employee, patron hurt in altercation at The Red Lion

By DEBRA PRESSEY

dpressey@news-gazette.com

CHAMPAIGN — An incident in which a patron and employee were injured outside The Red Lion bar at 211 E. Green St., C, remains under investigation, according to Champaign police.

Police spokesman Joe Lamberson said police were called to the 200 block of East Green Street about 1:47 a.m. Saturday for a report of an altercation between an intoxicated woman and a security staff member working at the bar.

According to reports, a female patron was escorted out of the bar for being in an unauthorized area, and once outside, she is said to have struck a security staff member in the head, he said.

The staff member “took her to the ground,” and she struck her head on the way down, Lamberson said. The staff member had injuries consistent with being punched, Lamberson said.

The woman suffered a cut to the right side of her head and was taken to a local hospital, he said.

While the woman was intoxicated, she was speaking with staff, he said.

Good morning,

I have been tasked with arranging a major incident review meeting with Red Lion regarding Saturday's incident, but Mayor Feinen and Matt Roeschley would like to review a copy of the police report before I reach out to them. Is there any way you could send me a copy of that so I can share it with the Liquor Commissioner's Office?

Other than this mess, hopefully Unofficial weekend was kind to you!!

Thanks,
Miranda

Home close to home: CU resident students reflect on term 'townies'

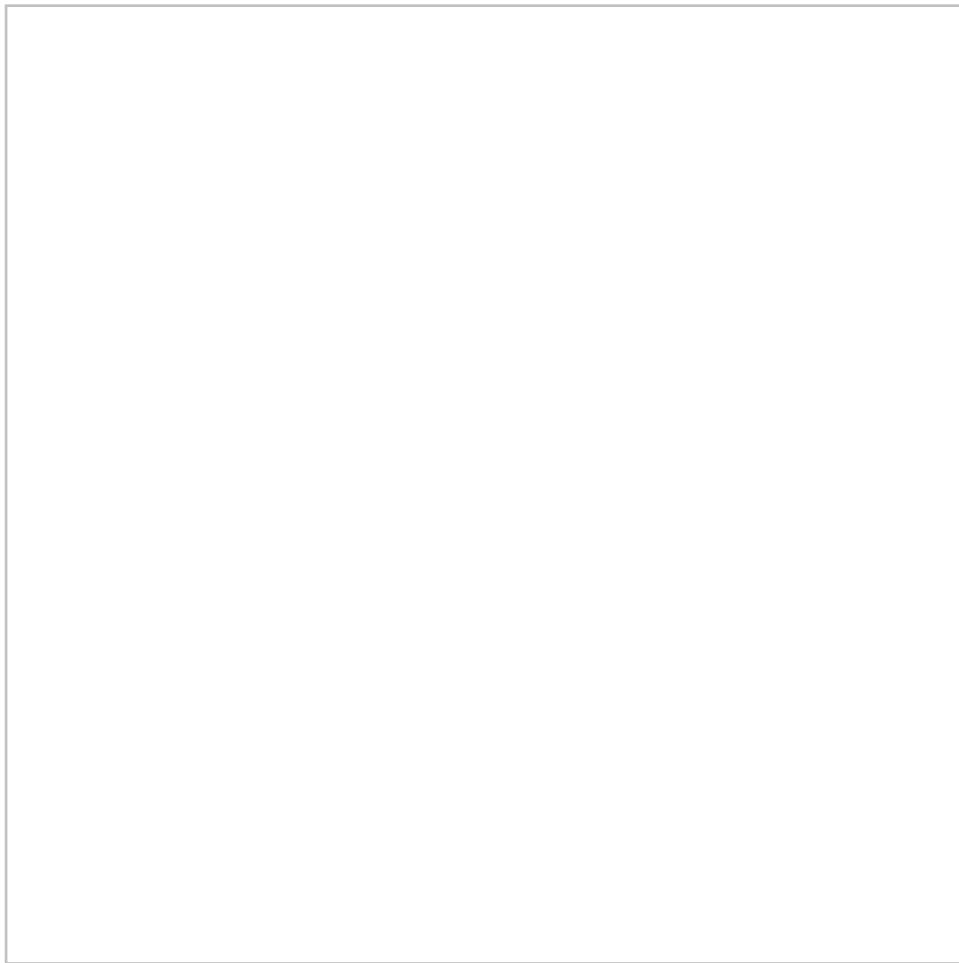

For new students, one of the most exciting parts of coming to college is getting to explore and integrate themselves into a new location. For the University, this new place is Champaign-Urbana. However, for some students from Urbana High School, Champaign Central High School and Centennial High School, Champaign-Urbana is also the place they call home. Read more.

Opinion | Switzerland's neutrality is morally unjust

The famously neutral Switzerland made the unexpected move to impose sanctions on Russia and Vladimir Putin in response to the invasion of Ukraine. This historical decision to take a stance and effectively break neutrality has since been praised by the media for what really is the absolute bare minimum.

‘It’s what this thing is about’: Illinois men’s basketball celebrates hardware with fans on State Farm Center hardwood

Confetti. Court storm. Champions. After having to wait 17 seasons, No. 20 Illinois secured its first Big Ten regular-season title since 2005 with a 74-72 win over No. 24 Iowa at State Farm Center on Sunday. With three minutes left on the clock, fans began to leave their seats and headed for the stairs. If sports fans learned anything from Game 6 of the 2013 NBA Finals when the Miami Heat faithful started to leave with their team down late only to win in overtime, it’s that you should never leave your seats early. Hello Mr. Copeland,

The Deputy Liquor Commissioner has requested the current Use of Force Policy for Red Lion. If you could send me an electronic copy, and then also have that available for viewing at today's Major Incident Review Meeting, that would be great!

Thank you,

Hi Andre and Kevin,

I'm assisting Darian with opening a video file from the Red Lion but the player file seems to be corrupted. Could we have the player sent to us again? The easiest way is to upload it to Onedrive and share the link to us or let me know where the player is located.

Thank you,

Anh Tran

Hi Joe,

We just heard about a girl got knocked out at the Red Lion bar by a bouncer on Saturday night. Can you give me some details on what happened and if there were any arrests made?

Thank you and looking forward to hearing back from you soon.

Best regards,
