NARRATIVE

On 12-2-18, at 0551 hrs. officers were dispatched to 601 Guardian in Urbana for a report of a traffic crash. Guardian West employee [REDACTED], DOB [REDACTED] advised METCAD that a white male driving a green Jeep crashed through their fence and into a large area of steel shelves.

I arrived on scene and spoke with [REDACTED] and the driver of the Jeep, Jonathan N Hutton, DOB [REDACTED]. Jonathan provided me with a valid insurance card but could not locate his drivers license. Jonathan stated he provided it to the employee but it was since misplaced.

I discovered Jonathan had a valid driver's license in that I checked his license through LEADS. According to Jonathan he was traveling west on Butzow approaching Guardian when his accelerator got stuck. Jonathan's speed increased and he exited the roadway and drove through an open grassy area. Jonathan then crossed Guardian street and exited the roadway again crashing through the fence into Guardian West's property. Jonathan continued into the parking lot striking a large steel shelf. Jonathan's vehicle came to a stop in a grassy area just north of the entry gate off of Guardian drive.

Sgt. Willfong arrived on scene to assist me. I asked Sgt. Willfong to standby with Jonathan while I gathered some paperwork from my squad car.

I returned and Sgt. Willfong canvassed the area on foot to locate Jonathan's route of travel. I approached Jonathan and asked him to explain to me how the crash had occurred once more.

A perplexed look came over Jonathan's face. Jonathan placed his hands inside his jacket pocket and began to stare contently at my duty belt, most particularly my duty pistol and Taser. I asked Jonathan what was wrong. Jonathan refused to answer but moved closer as he continued to stare at my Taser. I ordered Jonathan to stop and to remove his hands from his pockets. Jonathan failed to comply with my commands as he continued moving closer and kept his hands in his pockets. It should be noted that I had not conducted a search on Jonathan therefore I had no knowledge if he was concealing a weapon. It was for officer safety purposes I ordered Jonathan to remove his hands from his jacket.

I gave Jonathan another order to remove his hands which he failed to comply once again. I grabbed ahold of Jonathan's right arm and attempted to pull it out from the jacket pocket. Jonathan began to resist by pulling away and turning his body away from me.

I executed a takedown by grabbing ahold of Jonathan, picking him up, and placing him on the ground. This resulted in Jonathan and I to falling to the ground. Jonathan began to grab at my duty belt and vest. I attempted to gain compliance of Jonathan's right arm and place him in handcuffs. Jonathan pulled away and tucked both arms under his chest as he was laying face down. I called for Sgt. Willfong to assist me over the radio.

I gave Jonathan verbal commands to remove his arms and place them behind his back. Jonathan refused to comply with my commands. I struck Jonathan in the side torso with my knee. I gave Jonathan another verbal command to comply but he refused. I struck Jonathan a second time in the side torso with my knee and gave additional commands. After the second knee strike Jonathan removed his left arm and placed it behind his back.

As I attempted to secure Jonathan's left arm Sgt. Willfong attempted to remove his right arm from underneath his chest. As I placed handcuffs on Jonathan's left wrist Jonathan pulled his arm away again and grabbed at my vest. I struck Jonathan on the side of the head with a closed fist two times. I then gave Jonathan verbal commands to place his arms behind his

Jonathan finally complied with verbal commands and placed his left arm behind his back. I secured Jonathan's left wrist in a handcuff. Sgt. Willfong was able to remove Jonathan's right arm from under his chest and place it behind his back. As I attempted to place Jonathan's right wrist in handcuffs Jonathan pulled away again. I maintained control of Jonathan's wrist and applied slow steady pressure to Jonathan's wrist in a downward fashion in order to gain compliance.

Jonathan was secured in handcuffs at 0613 hrs. Sgt. Smysor arrived on scene to assist. Sgt. Smysor and Sgt. Willfong stood Jonathan up on his feet and walked him over to Sgt. Willfong's squad car. Jonathan was searched and placed inside the vehicle.

I requested an ambulance to evaluate Jonathan for any injuries he may have received during the altercation and the traffic crash. Jonathan was transported to Carle Hospital for further evaluation.

I searched Jonathan's vehicle and discovered a large amount of loose green leafy substance that was smeared into the floor boards. Based on my training and experience I believed the substance to be cannabis. I also located clear glass smoking pipe in the center console. Underneath the passenger seat I located a clear plastic bag that contained suspected cannabis. I then checked the area outside the vehicle and located a blue metal grinder inside the manhole. The grinder appeared recently placed there as throughout the night there was rainfall and the manhole was filled with leaves and mud. The grinder was dry and had no mud on it. The grinder also contained suspected cannabis.

I collected the glass smoking pipe, blue metal grinder, and a small amount of cannabis. I was not able to retrieve all the loose cannabis. I transported the items to the police station and placed them into evidence locker #6. I removed a small portion of the cannabis and conducted a field test to confirm the substance was cannabis. The results of the field test were positive for (THC).

I drove to Carle and met with Sgt. Willfong and Jonathan. I read Jonathan the warning to motorist form. I then requested that Jonathan submit to an urine sample. Jonathan agreed and said he would submit urine as he was not drinking last night. Carle RN [REDACTED] collected Jonathan's urine sample while I was present. I then completed the law enforcement sworn report while waiting for Jonathan to be cleared.

Once Jonathan was cleared from the hospital I transported him to the Champaign County Jail. At the jail I completed an AWOW for Resisting Obstructing a Police Officer, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and Possession of Cannabis between 10-30 grams. I also completed an AWOW for driving under the influence of cannabis and improper lane usage.

After Jonathan was booked into the jail I advised him of his Miranda Rights. I asked Jonathan about the cannabis and paraphernalia that I discovered inside his vehicle. Jonathan looked confused and stated he was unaware that any cannabis or paraphernalia were inside his vehicle.

I asked Jonathan about the physical altercation. Jonathan did not answer. I asked Jonathan why he suddenly became non-compliant with my verbal commands. I also asked why he became physically and actively resistive. Jonathan had a confused look on his face and shrugged his shoulder. Jonathan said he was sorry but would not divulge why his demeanor and behavior changed suddenly.

I left the jail and returned to the police station. I secured the biological specimen collection kit containing Jonathan's urine in evidence locker #38.

While completing my report, I discovered I provided Jonathan with a receipt to drive which was not required at this point in the investigation. I completed the notice of summary suspension/revocation incorrectly as I filled in today's date on the notice of summary suspension/ revocation line. I completed an entire new warning to motorist and law enforcement sworn report. I collected all copies of the original documents and attached them to this report. I provided Jonathan with new copies that were correctly completed.

No further information at this time.

NARRATIVE

On 12/02/18 at about 0557 hours, I assisted Officer Ruff with a Traffic Crash and DUI investigation at the Guardian West factory, 601 Guardian Dr. When I arrived, I located Officer Ruff on the east side of the factory near an entrance gate along Guardian Dr. at the dead end. The property has a large metal fence surrounding it on all sides. I saw that a portion of that fence between the intersection of Guardian / Butzow and the dead end of Guardian had been knocked down. There were tire tracks in the grass indicating that a vehicle had left the west side of Guardian Dr. and driven through the fence. The tire tracks continued on the inside of the fenced area to where Officer Ruff was standing near a green '97 Jeep Cherokee. I also saw that there were tire tracks in the grass on the east side of Guardian drive along the same path of travel. Those tracks came from a grassy area with several small trees and other scrubs. I could not see where they originated but the tracks took a diagonal path from the grassy area, across Guardian Dr., and onto the Guardian West property through the fence.

The Jeep had travelled northwest through the grass inside the fenced area, crossed a driveway and ended up in a grassy area near the southeast corner of the factory building. It appeared from the tire tracks that the Jeep had continued northwest after crossing the driveway and struck one or more large steel container baskets. There were tire tracks that went to the east from there to the location of the Jeeps current position. It was facing west. One of the Guardian West security guards told me that the Jeep had impacted the storage baskets but then the security guard tried to help the driver move the Jeep by having him back it to the west where it was currently parked in the very muddy grass.

I spoke briefly with the driver, who Officer Ruff had identified as Jonathan Hutton. I asked him what had happened. He initially said that he was "just driving and tried to turn but it wouldn't turn." He also claimed that the throttle was stuck and he could not get the truck to stop. He went on to claim that "something was going on in the transmission." I asked where he had been going. He said that he had left his home at [REDACTED] and was going to the gas station to get a Polar Pop. As I questioned him further about how he got here, he pointed to nearby roads to indicate where he had been driving. He pointed to Butzow and said he was driving east after leaving his house. He then said that his truck was "acting up" and was going to turn around and go home. He said that as he was making a U-turn, the throttle on the truck stuck, it took off, and he could not stop it. If he had been driving east on Butzow, he would have to turn south on Guardian to go toward any gas station. He had ended up to the south of Butzow. I asked why he had turned south instead of north. He pointed directly at the intersection of Butzow and Guardian and said that he was trying to make a U-turn right there and as he was in the middle of making that U-turn is when the truck took off by itself. He said that was how he ended up south of Butzow.

I spoke briefly with Officer Ruff and told him what Hutton had said. Officer Ruff advised that even though Hutton had claimed the crash was only the result of a mechanical issue, he was concerned that it might have been the result of Hutton being impaired. I also suspected that a mechanical issue was not the sole cause of the crash. Hutton had provided varying stories of how the crash occurred and his story of making a U-turn at the intersection was not supported by the tire tracks that came out of the grassy area on the east side of Guardian Dr. I told Officer Ruff that I was going to walk toward Butzow for a closer look at the tire tracks while he began further investigating the possibility of DUI.

As I neared the area where the tire tracks crossed Guardian Dr., I saw that they came from the southeast through the grassy area. The truck had struck some large brush or small trees and there were some large branches that had been dislodged and thrown onto the street. I could not see where the tire tracks originated. I could tell that they did not originate from anywhere near the intersection of Butzow and Guardian Dr.

I then heard Officer Ruff ask me over the radio to return to his location. I turned around to walk back. Within a few seconds, I saw a subject on the ground and another subject standing nearby. From the distance, I could not tell who was who. I then heard Officer Ruff yell, "Stop resisting!" I realized that it was both he and Hutton on the ground and a security guard standing by watching. I ran to aid Officer Ruff as he was trying to control Hutton and told METCAD to send another officer. I heard Officer Ruff yell a couple more times for Hutton to stop resisting and to put his hands behind his back. By the time I reached them, the security guard had moved in to assist and was trying to grab Hutton's right arm. The security guard moved away as I ran up. I tried to grab Hutton's right arm but I had difficulty because he was moving it around. He was also wearing a heavy coat that made it difficult for me to grasp his wrist. As I was trying to control his right arm, he pulled it away from me a couple of times and moved it in front of him as he was laying on his stomach. I had to grab it with both hands and use brute strength to pull his arm behind him. As I was doing this, he tried two or three times to push himself up off the ground. I had to push him back down and told him to stay down.

When I finally got his right arm behind his back, I still was unable to grasp his wrist because of his large coat sleeve. I managed to grasp his fingers used a sideways pressure on them in an attempt to gain compliance as I was telling him to keep his hand behind his back. He continued to try pulling his arm free but was unsuccessful. While this was occurring, I saw Officer Ruff struggling to get Hutton's left arm behind his back. I heard Officer Ruff yell at Hutton several times to put his hand behind his back. I saw that Hutton was pulling his left arm away from Officer Ruff and was repeatedly trying to put his hand in front of him. I saw Officer Ruff deliver two knee strikes to Hutton's left side as he was struggling to control Hutton's left arm and place it behind his back. After I got Hutton's right arm behind his back, Officer Ruff placed a handcuff on Hutton's right wrist. I was then able to better control Hutton's right arm and keep it behind his back by holding onto the handcuff. Once Officer

Ruff managed to get Hutton's left arm behind his back, we finished handcuffing him by placing the other cuff on his left wrist.

Sergeant Smysor soon arrived and we helped Hutton stand to his feet. Sergeant Smysor and I walked Hutton in front of my squad car and searched him there. We found nothing of evidentiary value on his person. We then placed him in the back seat of Officer Ruff's squad car.

Due to the knee strikes, Officer Ruff had summoned paramedics to assess Hutton for any injuries. When they arrived, I briefed them and allowed them to talk with and assess Hutton as he sat in the back of the squad car. I asked Hutton if he was injured. His only complaint was that his ribs were "a little sore." The paramedics requested that we move Hutton to the ambulance to better assess him. As they spoke with him inside the ambulance, I overheard him tell them that he was not diabetic and had not been drinking. They checked his blood sugar level and advised it was 185. They did not find any major injury and Hutton continued to say that his only pain was a little soreness in his side. He refused any further medical treatment and did not want to be transported to the hospital. Because Hutton had been involved in a traffic crash, the jail would require a medical clearance before accepting him. Therefore, I requested that the ambulance go ahead and transport Hutton to Carle Hospital even though he was refusing any further treatment. I rode in the ambulance with them as they transported. During the ride, Hutton asked several times what he had done wrong. He did not seem to understand why he was under arrest.

I stood by with Hutton at Carle until Officer Ruff joined me there. When I left the hospital, I returned to the scene. I took several photographs of the area and the damaged fence and Jeep as the tow truck was hooking it up. I later emailed the photos to Evidence Technician Carr to be retained as evidence. While examining the area and taking photos, I drove east on Butzow. I found an area on the north side of Butzow where Hutton's Jeep left the roadway. It was in an area where the roadway curves slightly to the left as travelling westbound and was more than 100 feet east of the intersection. There was no indication that Hutton had attempted a U-turn here. The tire tracks were in a straight line and it appeared as though Hutton continued driving straight instead of maneuvering through the curve. He left the north side of the roadway and travelled northwest through the grassy/lightly wooded area for about 200 feet before crossing Guardian Dr.

I have printed a satellite image from Google Maps of the area and drew a line on it indicating the approximate path of Hutton's Jeep. That image is attached to this report.

While photographing the area near where the Jeep came to rest, I noticed a storm sewer grate. Officer Ruff had mentioned to me that he found a cannabis grinder near there that he suspected Hutton had discarded. I looked inside the grate and saw a hemostat laying at the bottom. It appeared to have been recently placed there, as the bottom of the storm sewer was covered with mud and leaves but the hemostat was clean and laying atop the leaves. Through my training and experience, I know that this medical device is commonly used by people who smoke cannabis cigarettes (joints.) The locking forceps are used to hold a joint during smoking when it gets too small to hold with bare fingers. I was unable to retrieve the hemostat since it was at the bottom of the storm drain but I took photos of it.

When I had originally arrived at the scene, I had parked my squad car at an entrance gate along Guardian Dr. where it was facing Hutton's Jeep. The in-car video camera was recording while it was parked there. My conversations with Hutton were recorded via my body mic. The video image recorded Officer Ruff's interaction with Hutton during the arrest and struggle; however, it is at a distance. I have tagged that video to be retained as evidence.

NARRATIVE

On 12-02-18 at around 6:10 am, I heard Officer Ruff call for another unit while dealing with a subject who crashed through a fence at Guardian West. It sounded over the radio as though officers were struggling with a subject. I responded by running code to the scene. Upon my arrival, Officer Ruff and Sgt. Willfong had already placed the subject into handcuffs.

I assisted in helping the subject off of the ground. I walked the subject over to the front of a squad car and assisted in searching him before he was placed in the back seat of the squad car.

I stayed on scene until Feldkamp's came and towed the vehicle away.

NARRATIVE

When I approached Jonathan again I asked him to explain to me again his actions. Jonathan looked perplexed and slowly lifted his hands up from his side and slowly placed them inside his jacket pockets. At this point I had not conducted any pat-downs and/or searches of Jonathan's person to determine if he was concealing any weapons. I did locate several knives and swords inside Jonathans' vehicle however.

I asked Jonathan if he was okay because his demeanor had changed from calm and cooperative to almost paranoia. Jonathan crouched down and moved his head from side to side staring intently at my duty belt, especially my X2 Taser. I ordered Jonathan to remove his hands from his jacket pocket which he failed to do.

I gave Jonathan verbal commands to remove his hands from his jacket pocket a second time but Jonathan still did not comply. It was at that time I dropped my notebook and grabbed ahold of Jonathan's right arm and attempted to pull his hand out of his jacket pocket. Jonathan tightened up his body, lowered himself, and pulled away from my grasps.

I executed a takedown by grabbing ahold of Jonathan and throwing him to the ground. On the ground I attempted to pull Jonathan's hand out of his jacket pockets. While pulling on Jonathan's arms and I shouted verbal commands ordering him to remove his hands from this pockets.

I was able to pull both of Jonathan's hands out from his jacket pockets and observed that he had nothing in his hands. Jonathan then attempted and succeeded in grabbing ahold of my exterior vest carrier which contained several weapons of opportunity that could harm Jonathan and/or myself.

I grabbed ahold of Jonathans' right arm and attempted to secure it in handcuffs. Jonathan pulled his arm away from my grasps and was able to roll over and tuck both of his arms under his chest. The ground where this occurred was muddy and had standing water. Being covered in mud and water made it more difficult to grab ahold of Jonathan's arm and maintain control of it.

I radioed for Sgt. Willfong to assist me in handcuffing Jonathan. I continued to give Jonathan verbal commands to pull his arms out from under his chest and place them at his side. Jonathan failed to comply. I was not able to grab ahold and keep control of Jonathan's arm due to the muddy and slippery conditions. Jonathan appeared to be shuffling his hands underneath his chest. I was still not sure at this point if Jonathan was concealing and/or attempting to retrieve a weapon from his person.

After failing to comply with several verbal commands and Jonathan continuing to move his hands underneath his chest in a manner that lead me to believed he was grabbing for something I struck Jonathan in his rib cage area with my knee. Jonathan continued to resist in that he kept his arms underneath his chest. I struck Jonathan a second time in the ribcage area with my knee while still giving him verbal commands. Immediately after I struck Jonathan the second time I was able to gain control of his left arm, pulled it out from underneath his chest, and placed it behind his back.

Sgt. Willfong arrived and attempted to gain control of Jonathan's right arm. I was able to place Jonathan's left wrist in a handcuff but before I could ensure it was double locked and fit properly Jonathan pulled it away. Jonathan attempted to grab ahold of my vest again. As Jonathan swung his arm frantically the other end of the handcuff was moving freely. The handcuffs are made of metal with some sharp edges. If struck with a sharp end of the handcuff one could sustain injuries to include abrasions, lacerations, and could even lodge into a person's eye. If Sgt. Willfong or I were to be struck in the eye it would dramatically effect our ability to protect ourselves.

I gave Jonathan verbal commands to stop moving his arm and place it behind his back but Jonathan refused to comply. I was in a position on top of Jonathan where my only area to effectively strike was the side of his head. I struck Jonathan with a closed fist two times on the left side of his head while continuing to give verbal commands.

After the second strike Jonathan appeared to not want to fight anymore. Jonathan complied with my verbal commands and placed his left arm behind his back. Sgt. Willfong was able to then grab and maintain control of Jonathan's right arm.

I attempted to secure Jonathan's right arm in the handcuff. Jonathan pulled his arm away yet again and began struggling attempting to free both of his arms. I maintained control of Jonathan's left wrist and applied steady downward pressure in order to gain compliance. While applying downward pressure I gave Jonathan verbal commands to comply. Jonathan relaxed his body and arms enough that Sgt. Willfong and I were able to secure him in handcuffs at 0613 hrs.

Jonathan was transported to Carle Hospital via ambulance to assess any potential injuries from the altercation as well as to continue my investigation on driving under the influence.

Several weeks later I received notification from the Illinois Police Crime Lab that Jonathan's urine contained levels of cannabis and cocaine.

Nothing further to report at this time.
