Sergeant Lack
Champaign Police Department
82 E. University Avenue
Champaign, IL 61820

Dear Sergeant Lack,

This letter is to inform you of my gratitude to your officers, Thompson, Standifer and Alvis who responded to my call to Champaign Police on the morning of Tuesday, March 12 to check on my friend of 40 years, [REDACTED]. Officer Alvis was waiting for me when I arrived and entered the house with the key [REDACTED] had given me years ago. Officer Standifer arrived a short time later and also entered the house. He took upon himself the difficult task of informing me that my friend had passed. Officer Thompson arrived and talked with me while we waited for Carle and the coroner to arrive.

I first alerted Officer Thompson to the situation back in October. I called her in twice to check on [REDACTED] but didn't know that she had recently checked on her weekly and had brought her food often. [REDACTED], out of her poverty, her pride, and her desire for privacy had refused the many offers of help from your officers, numerous social agencies, myself and others. However, your officers stepped up to do what they could. I am very grateful that they did and wanted you to know that they went above and beyond their duty in so doing.

I know they would say that they didn't offer what help they could for recognition's sake, only because they care for citizens, but I hope that you will be able to recognize them for their superior service to my friend.

Sincerely,

Marilyn J. Nichols

Officer Art Miller,

I want to thank you and commend you for volunteering to present at this year's Citizen Police Academy. This is always the favorite presentation of the participants every year. They always enjoy all three aspects of the demo: Bomb Squad, SWAT, and K9. You were able to connect with the citizens of Champaign County and help them to understand how officers are trained and the risks they take in the line of duty to save lives. The citizens and I recognized and appreciated your expertise in this area. Additionally, your sincerity and passion for police-community relations were clear and apparent to the participants.

Following your presentation, Citizen Police Academy students were praising your presentation. You are an excellent representative of, not only your department but all of the law enforcement profession.

Thank you for taking the time out of your schedule to be involved in an important program.

Respectfully,

Dear Ms. Brix:

On July 9th between the hours of 9:00 and 10:00 PM I was returning to my apartment from my service animals final walk of the evening when I was again confronted by the individual associated with apartment [REDACTED] and a coconspirator. They engaged in a simulated attack rushing toward me from two different directions. Fortunately I made it inside my apartment with my dogs unmolested. I immediately contacted the Champaign police. After a brief conversation with the dispatcher I declined to have an officer dispatched to my home as I was safely inside with the door locked. To my surprise I heard a knock at my door the following day at about 3 PM and it was officer Beach. That is the reason for this email. If you could

I'm certain this was a run of the mill call for you, but your actions meant a lot to NSD. Thank you both for your compassion and professionalism dealing with this citizen as your actions were noted and impressive to Kerri (I actually ran into Kerri after the event on Saturday and she verbally shared her appreciation in addition to this email). Please continue to be excellent representatives of unconditional respect and excellent customer service in all of your contacts.

Hello Chief Cobb,

Just want to send a quick shout out and thanks for Sgt. Rogers and Officer Brazelton's assistance today at our Beardsley/Willis Park cleanup event.

They descalated an angry neighbor at the beginning of our event. By the time we were closing up, the same neighbor came to join us in loading the dumpster and volunteered with the neighborhood leader to be a part of the next one!

I am also grateful that my team got a chance to share info and ideas with your team, Chief Cobb, particularly about the unmanaged vacant properties that are a blight for all of us. I did talk a bit about David's CPTED survey and things we can do together to educate Garden Hills/Beardsley residents to promote safety features home by home.

I look forward to continuing success with neighborhood events and am grateful for your team's expertise.

Warmly,

Kerri Wiman, Neighborhood Services Director

To Whom It May Apply,

Officer Isidro Garcia was present at the CAC on Thursday, November 21, 2019 to help interpret for a Hispanic family. He was AMAZING! He was very professional, understanding and very patient with the mother. His demeanor was very calming in this tough and traumatic situation. The mother related very well to him and even opened up about a situation that happen to her that she had never told anyone. He never interrupted her when she was telling what had gotten them to need a CAC interview or when I need clarification. His presents helped everyone involved receive all the information that was need for this case to continue and for us to put into place resources to help this family heal.

I was very impressed and wanted to share. Many times people help out, they or other never know how much they are appreciated.

Subject: Professional Conduct of Champaign Police Officer

Dear Sir:

I'm sure you get complaints, but this is a compliment for the department and for a particular officer. I was at the Champaign Public Library one afternoon this past week (I'm sorry I don't have the date), when a young girl left the middle school across the street without permission and went into the library's teen section. I was working on my laptop at a nearby table. The girl's case worker showed up and began talking with her, whereupon the girl began to abuse her verbally and scream all sorts of vile language. Library security responded immediately, but it was clear the girl was having no success in controlling herself or piping down. Patrons avoided the area and generally ignored the scene, though doing so was difficult. The situation seemed to be quickly turning ugly and escalating out of control.

Officer Canales responded to a call from library security. I was really impressed by his professionalism, his presence, his patience, and his forbearance. He spoke to the girl in a gentle, nonthreatening way, and he just kept giving her time and space, without, however, permitting her to leave that room in the library. Though I wasn't trying to eavesdrop, I did hear him quietly explain her options and the consequences that could follow particular behaviors.

Though it took some time, I eventually noticed complete silence. Other officers had responded outside to the scene, and the girl finally responded appropriately to Officer Canales and accompanied him and the library security man out of a side fire door. I have no idea what happened thereafter, but this member of Champaign's finest quietly, confidently, and professionally negotiated a good result to a very bad situation. Yes, I know our officers are trained, and I know they are experienced, but Officer Canales did a superb job, and I would like you to know about it.

I called the department, hoping to talk with Chief Cobb, whom I've met at neighborhood meetings, when he can be there, but he wasn't available. Much of the department Web site seems to be broken, especially in the Contact area. But when I finally found a person to report professional conduct to, I realized telling you about this commendable conduct might be the best route. My thanks to our fine police department. I appreciate what you do.

Sincerely,
Rob Siedenburg

Dear Chief Cobb,

My daughter, Rebecca Shew, and I want to express our admiration and deep appreciation for Detective Jody Cherry.

The weekend of September 28, 2018 my daughter went to Champaign for what we thought was an approved visit with her son. Detective Cherry was caught up in the vindictive melodrama perpetrated by my grandson's father, [REDACTED] and the woman living with him. Unfortunately, Adams County Pennsylvania Children and Youth Services insisted that my grandson at least try to adjust to living with his father who had had NO INTERACTION with the child in his entire 15 years until he was placed with [REDACTED] on August 14, 2018.

My daughter, on September 28, when asked the whereabouts of my grandson was not forthcoming. She was tired, frightened and not thinking clearly and gave Detective Cherry cause to place her under arrest. Even though she went through quite an ordeal, we both are grateful for the professionalism, fairness and caring for my grandson shown by Detective Cherry. We wish every community in the USA were fortunate enough to have a person of his ability protecting them too.

The weekend of October 5, 2018 Detective Cherry provided the guidance and direction to help me retrieve my grandson's pet rabbit from his father's house in Champaign. This fantastic act of kindness meant more than words can tell to my grandson, my daughter and me.

My grandson returned home to Gettysburg on October 11, 2018 and is doing very well as is his rabbit.

We all thank Detective Cherry from the bottom of our hearts and hope he is well recognized for the outstanding work he does.

Hi Chief Cobb,

My name is Jody Cook and I am one of the rabbis at Sinai Temple in Champaign (on Windsor just west of Duncan). I want to thank you and your department for all that you do to help ensure that the members of the CU Jewish community feel safe in our home. After two recent anti-Semitic acts (the butcher massacre and the Hanukkah massacre), we had officers stop by our building to check in/sit in the parking lot to catch up on paperwork. We sincerely appreciate the presence of the Champaign Police Department and know that there are so many things happening in our small CU community that you are dealing with – which makes it even more noteworthy that your officers still find time to check in our the Jewish community.

On behalf of the Sinai Temple congregation, I hope that New Year's Eve is a quiet one for Champaign and that the officers who serve our community are safe tonight and throughout the new year.

Happy New Year and thank you,

Jody Cook

Sgt Frost is such a great asset to the community. We loved getting to know him when he would greet students at Booker T. Washington. Each day my son would say, "Good morning, Sargent Frost" and give him a hug. He has watched my son grow from a tiny 2nd grader to a tall middle schooler. He is always a friendly face when we see him about town and always takes the time to chat with us.

Patrol, I think this notice of recognition is referring to Officer Frye, but I could be mistaken. I will defer to you to identify and forward to the appropriate Officer so they are aware their work was appreciated by a community member.

I would like Officer Tim (sorry I didn't get his last name) on patrol early this morning (3/13/19). As he was driving down Staley around 3:00 am, he cam across a little dog.

He took the time to stop and check on the dog. His kindness reunited our family. Because of his kindness there are four happy children this morning instead of four grieving children.

In this crazy world kindness is not acknowledged enough. People only mention the negative. I would like Officer Tim and his superiors to know how much his actions this morning has meant to our family.

Thank you does not seem to be enough, but

THANK YOU!!

Hi Champaign Police Dept.,

Today at Indian Acres we had a car hit one of our employee's cars and take off, in response I called your front desk and they transferred me to your dispatch. Dispatch sent an officer to our facility and he met us in the parking lot, where he filed a police report with the employee and a few eye witnesses.

I just want to email to say thank you, I was extremely happy with how well I was handled over the phone, and to thank the Officer (Off. A. Funches ID: 7787) for being extremely kind/helpful to everyone involved. I know you guys definitely don't get the appreciation you deserve, so I just wanted to let you guys know Indian Acres is very appreciative and we think you guys are doing an amazing job.

Thanks Again,

Good afternoon,

I didn't know who this should go to, so I just chose "up the ladder". I hope you will forward to the appropriate person(s).

Our home was one that was unfortunately hit with the taking of Halloween decorations this past week from the fraternity boys. I had called into Dispatch in the morning and contacted by Mr. Greear by mid-morning. He then made a visit to my workplace (since I was not at home, and with appropriate approval) to get the details of items that were taken and my additional information. From there he also contacted, and visited, a couple more times to keep me in the loop of that status and kindly return all of our items.

As much as I would love to reward his work with a tangible item, I know your department is not supposed to receive items from the public. Therefore, I hope this fills the shoes of that. I want to express how impressed I was with Mr. Greear on a professional level, how quickly all of this was resolved, and his follow through with the community members in general. It was nice to see the hard work and dedication he put towards getting this resolved in a timely manner, and keeping it at a civil manner with all parties involved.

Thank you for your daily commitment to our community, and kudos to Brian especially in this case!

Have a nice day,

Description of Incident

Please describe what you believe the officer/employee did properly or improperly, and explain how you were personally involved in this incident.

Officer Holloway dropped of a 'reverse trick or treating' bag for my boys. It included some candy, some toys, a CPD water bottle, some CPD foam baseballs, and some information for keeping safe.

Living on W. Columbia is not without it's fair share of drama. We've had cars broken into, homes broken into, regular mischief, our car totaled by a drunk driver, our car stolen. Last year around this time a murder took place on Vine St. These incidents create stress in a community. Despite these incidents, CPD (despite being overworked) has always been professional and friendly with us. Officer Holloway has gone out of his way for the past THREE years to make sure my boys feel valued in our community. It may seem like a little gesture, but it has lasting effects on how kids grow up to view the role of police. The effort public servants, especially Police, have to go through these days to prove their worth isn't justifiable - but it is the reality.

Officer Holloway's seemingly small gesture played out at my sons' school where they told their peers about what happened. It was communicated at my wife and my place of work. We shared it with family and neighbors. Thanks again.

Officer Thomas,

I want to thank you and commend you for volunteering to present at this year's Citizen Police Academy. This is always the favorite presentation of the participants every year. They always enjoy all three aspects of the demo: Bomb Squad, SWAT, and K9. You were able to connect with the citizens of Champaign County and help them to understand how officers are trained and the risks they take in the line of duty to save lives. The citizens and I recognized and appreciated your expertise in this area. Additionally, your sincerity and passion for police-community relations were clear and apparent to the participants.

Following your presentation, Citizen Police Academy students were praising your presentation. You are an excellent representative of, not only your department but all of the law enforcement profession.

Thank you for taking the time out of your schedule to be involved in an important program.

Dear Chief Cobb,

Sergeant Greg Manzana, Champaign Police Department (CPD), Field Training Coordinator and I co-presented on Collaborating to Address Alcohol Related Incidents on November 14, 2019 at 1:30 p.m. at the Illinois Liquor Control Commission 11th Annual College Town Summit held at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. There was a total of four breakout sessions held during this time period and ours was well attended by approximately 30 people.

Sergeant Manzana created the majority of the PowerPoint presentation slides. We covered our collaborative efforts to prevent and reduce sexual assaults by the proactive alcohol enforcement measures implemented at the start of this semester. In addition, we discussed the safety measures implemented with the success of Unofficial becoming a regular weekend, and our efforts to maintaining a safe, family-friendly environment at Illini home football games with the addition of stadium-wide alcohol sales.

Sergeant Manzana is very well organized and an excellent public speaker. He did an excellent job in engaging the audience and responding to questions. It was a pleasure in co-presenting with Greg. I value our collaborative effort in making a difference in our communities.

Sincerely,

Hi All,

I just wanted to share an interaction with one of our officers with you. This Sunday, Officer McCoy was responding to a call (not from us, thank goodness), and took the time to pose for a picture with my son. Even though he was busy trying to gather information before going to the next call, he was friendly and engaging with us and with our boys. The entire interaction took no more than a minute or two, but the boys are still talking about it.

If you get the chance, please give him a pat on the back for us. Thanks!

Today on my way to work my car went completely dead in the turning lane in front of Dallas and co. This amazing officer saw us and pulled in behind us. When jumping it didnt work, him and my boyfriend pushed us to a parking spot. Offered to help us out with a ride. I just asked if he could take all of us to my job because one of my customers volunteered to take my boyfriend to auto zone for the part. This man was so understanding and caring. He made us so comfortable. I'll never ever forget this day. I'm forever grateful. My boys won't stop talking about him. That officer deserves recognition

I want to thank you and commend you for volunteering to present at this year's Citizen Police Academy. Your presentation on Crime Scene Investigations was exceptional. However, I am most impressed that you went beyond the topic and showed how police officers are also community members just like them. Dear Chief Cobb,

I am writing to compliment you on having on your force officers like Jeffery Snodsmith. Recently we had motor vehicle damage to our property at [REDACTED] Street, Champaign. The fellow drove into our posted private no trespassing parking lot, damaged physical property with his vehicle and then left the scene.

I originally contacted Patrol Sergeant Thomas Frost about the incident. Officer Snodsmith was dispatched to respond. Officer Snodsmith was the consummate professional. Additionally he was a gentlemen and courteous.

He stayed in communication with me and very quickly brought the issue to resolution.

Thank you for having such well-trained, professional and citizen friendly officers on your force as exemplified by Officer Snodsmith. It is a reflection on your leadership.

A friend of mine witnessed this:

Yesterday.. I witnessed a police officer helping a lady who was in a wheelchair that apparently malfunctioned....I watched him as he pushed her down the street and I'm sure that wasn't an easy task. He pushed her to Round Barn Manor and yesterday was a hot one.. but he did it ..I did thank him for his service and he acted as though he did nothing and happy to do it....so when you hear bad things about some of our hero's meaning POLICE OFFICERS they're not all bad !!!!!!! Thank you to all of our men & women who jeopardize their lives everyday for us. Officer Standifier what I witnessed made me proud of my community because people like you make it a better place ...so when we hear all the negativity that goes around about Champaign there are more positive things that people don't always talk about.....together we can make a difference !!!!!!!

Mr. Chris Filler called today to compliment and recognize the officer, who stopped traffic for him and his wife in order for them to cross University Avenue/Fair Street on December 16th at around 1030 am. He advised that he is legally blind and whoever the officer driving the black colored sedan was, recognized their difficulty in crossing the busy street, turned on their emergency lighting, stopped traffic and made sure that they safely got across the street. He and his wife are very appreciative and thank the officer and fully support the police.

I tried to identify the officer through Tiburon, but it appears there was not a ticket made. Just another example of the small things making a big impact....

Dear Chief Cobb:

For the past 35 years, the South Willis Neighborhood Association and Neighborhood Watch has held their Neighborhood Block Party. This year the event was held on Sunday, September 29th from 2:30-5:30pm.

Each year, we request and fill out a Special Events Permit and invite the police to drop by to meet the neighbors. We realize they are often busy with calls and patrols. Sometimes they are able to do so.

We would like to let you know that we appreciated that Patrol Sergeant Brandon Thomas was able to stop by our Block Party and was able to make an informative presentation and meet with some of the 60 neighbors in attendance. He also has come by in the past and has always interacted well with the neighbors, including younger children.

We were glad Sergeant Thomas took the time to stop by and meet the neighbors. We fully support the concept of community policing to develop closer relations between citizens in neighborhoods and his presence certainly helped to promote this. He is a credit to your Department.
